The on-line LiveAuctioneer component is an important part of this auction. Failure to connect with LiveAuctioneer will be deemed a reason to delay the start of this auction.

There are several ways to participate in this auction. The following page is a mail or fax bidding form. Bids may be mailed to PO Box 490, Tamworth, NH 03886 or faxed to (603) 323-7563 or emailed to info@thewrittenwordautographs.com. In the event of duplicate high bids, the earliest received will be the winner. Submission of a bid is recognized as acceptance of the terms of sale. If you are faxing your bids, kindly call us at (603) 323-7563 first so we can turn on our machine.

Bidders may also participate in this auction through LiveAuctioneer's live auction service at no additional cost above the 17% buyer's premium. To utilize this service you must pre-register with LiveAuctioneer at least 24 hours before the auction. This catalog will be on their site on May 20th. Please visit www.liveauctions.com to register and be assigned a user name and password.

We will be pleased to contact you by phone from our office if you want to participate in the auction live. We are unable to accept incoming calls but we would be pleased to have a representative contact you on the day of the auction before lots in which you are interested are offered. Please call us early and not later than two hours before the auction to reserve a phone line for this service. We will not display bids on our web site nor will it be possible to bid through our web site during the auction.

Consignors may not bid on their own material nor have others bid on their behalf All bidders will be registered and must attest that they will not engage in "shill" bidding (bidding to increase the price without any intention of buying the lot). Violators of these provisions will be exempted from this auction and will be prohibited from ever bidding in future Written Word Autographs auctions.

The winner will always be the high bidder. Lots will not be reopened after the hammer for any reason.

Bids will not be accepted for any amount less than 60% of the "low estimate" for any lot. Please be aware that most lots carry a reserve beneath which the lot will not be sold. The low estimate is generally less than the consignor's reserve.

Bidding will proceed in the following increments:

Bidding Level	Increment
$100 to $500	$20
$501 to $1,000	$50
$1,001 to $5,000	$100
Over $5,000	$500

All bids will be opened at either the highest bid below the minimum estimated value, the minimum estimated value or one increment above the second highest ceiling bid. For example if bids of $200 and $500 are left for a lot with an estimate value of $200 to $400 the opening bid would be $220, one increment ($20) above the minimum. Absent any further bidding the lot would be sold to the $500 bidder for $220. Instances where there is a single bid in excess of the minimum, the lot will be opened one increment above the lowest estimate. For example a bid of $400 on a lot with a minimum value of $300 would force an opening bid of $320.

There is a 17% buyer premium for all bids, whether by mail, telephone, email or live bid on LiveAuctioneer. There will be a 3% additional charge if winning bidders choose to pay with American Express, Discover, MasterCard or VISA credit card or PayPal.
